

MONTEREY: HISTORIC CAPITAL OF CALIFORNIA

FRESNO PACIFIC UNIVERSITY

INSTRUCTOR: JEROMY WINTER

WWW.TEACHERSLEARNINGCONNECTION.COM

Busy teachers can earn professional development units while enjoying the freedom of taking three weeks to one year to complete this course.

Instructor: Jeromy Winter
Office: (559) 896-1012
Email: teacherslearningconnection@gmail.com
Website: www.teacherslearningconnection.com

Monterey, Historic Capital of California, SOC 902 Online Learning Course

This class is offered through Fresno Pacific University, Center for Professional Development. You will become knowledgeable about California's past by learning about Monterey's historic sites, watching videos, reading reference materials, and visiting on-line sites. You will also learn to integrate technological applications into your social studies lessons.

Course Information

- Learn about the history of California and where it all began.
- 100% online course.
- Earn Professional Development Units.
- Take up to one year to finish the course.

Subjects You Will Learn About

- Discovery and Settlement of Alta California
- Rumsen Indians
- Mission San Carlos Borromeo (Carmel Mission)
- Father Junípero Serra
- Commodore John Drake Sloat
- Fort Mervine
- Spanish and Mexican Periods
- 1849 Constitutional Convention

- Effects of the Gold Rush on Monterey
- ...and much more!

Sites You Will Learn About

- Portola Cross
- Carmel Mission
- Royal Presidio Chapel
- Presidio Museum
- Custom House
- First Brick House
- Old Whaling Station
- Serra/Vizcaino Monument
- Portola Monument
- California's First Theater
- Larkin House
- Sherman Quarters
- Colton Hall